CAYMAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Connect | Inspire | Serve

We are a positive community with passionate learners.

CIS is a co-educational, college preparatory day school governed by International School Services. CIS was founded as Faulkner Academy in 1994. Today it is housed in a new, purpose built 60,000 square foot facility on 13.2 acres that opened in the fall of 2006. In addition to the United States High School Diploma, students can earn the International Baccalaureate Diploma.

CIS is governed by International School Services (ISS), a nonprofit corporation dedicated to excellence for children attending overseas schools worldwide.

CIS is accredited by the Middle States Association and is an IB World School offering the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme. The school is a member of the Association of the American Schools in South America (ASSA), the Common Ground Collaborative, Round Square, and Green Alliance Schools.

Athletes participate in Caribbean Area International School Sports Association (CAISSA) and Private Schools Association (PSA) and compete in football, volleyball and basketball.

Students participate in musical, choral and theatrical productions including an annual performance in Steel Pan Band, Jazz Band, and Rock Band.

Students participate in Model United Nations, National Honors Society, High School Leadership.

Students participate in Robotics and 3-D molding & printing in our STEAM Lab.

Students provide leadership in community service initiatives and/or internships outside school boundaries. These activities may include visits to children recovering from heart surgery, the collection and distribution of school and personal supplies to needy local children, service trips to Peru, Honduras, Haiti, and Nicaragua, peer tutoring in local schools, and leadership in sports programs across the island.

There are 182 days in the school year which are divided into four terms. The 1st term starts in August and the 4th term ends in June.
