SUBMISSION GUIDELINES AND NOTES

The Thatch Rope Times student publication is envisaged as being a resource for teaching and learning about the Cayman Islands Coat of Arms and its significance to our country. Through its pages we hope to tap in to students' alert curiosity and artistic expression.

With your help and support, we aim to actively encourage students to think about this iconic emblem and convey their interpretation and thoughts using a wide variety of mediums.

We will publish short stories, essays, interviews, poems, photos, art (e.g. collage, painting, drawing) that are vivid, concise and geared towards a general student population audience.
